

Prepare for university with Kästner Kolleg and our „carefree student package”

➡ Get full information + support about university entrance and visa application procedures

➡ Prepare effectively with our language courses for university exams DSH, TestDaF and C-Test

➡ Benefit from the excellent and economical study + living conditions in beautiful “Elbflorenz”

Why study in Dresden?

- no tuition fees :)
- low living costs
- low rents for student halls, cheap canteens, cheap ‘semester ticket’ for public transport
- wide range of Diplom, BA, MA degrees native health insurance of EU citizens is accepted
- numerous hightech and research facilities (e.g. AMD, Infineon, Siemens, Max Planck Institute)
- historical and modern city with a colourful cultural life
- beautiful surroundings offering numerous opportunities for hiking, biking, climbing, swimming, canoeing, skiing etc.

Preconditions for admission to degree studies:

- formal preconditions: education qualification equivalent to the German „Abitur“
- language preconditions:
 - DSH, level 2 or 3
 - TestDaF, level 4 or 5
 - or other equivalent examinations

Kästner Kolleg Service:

- advice on study opportunities in Dresden and Germany
- assistance with university application* and visa questions
- qualified language preparation courses for entrance examinations to “Studienkolleg”, DSH or TestDaF
- affordable accommodation and insurance
- arrangement of language tandems and free internet access

Steps to university studies

1. Get* and send application dossier to your university/ or to our school - in order to get a “confirmation of application”
2. Enrol for a German course (preparation for the university entrance exams) at Kästner Kolleg - and get the “confirmation of course booking”
3. Apply for your visa at a German embassy in your home city/country. Organise the trip to Dresden - with our help if needed :)

Information & Registration:

Kästner Kolleg e.V.
Tannenstr. 2 * D-01099 Dresden, Germany
Tel: +49 (0)351 8036360 *Fax: +351 8036894
E-Mail: info@sprachmobil.com
Web: www.sprachmobil.com